

Youth Civic Engagement Leaders

The Center for African American Health Youth Civic Engagement Leadership Program invests in the personal and professional growth of Metro Denver area youth by providing them opportunities to:

- Develop crucial life skills that will serve them beyond their high school years
- Become agents of change within their communities and the greater Metro Denver area
- Engage in meaningful service initiatives that they research, plan, and carry out to positively impact their communities

Contact us today to learn more.

WHEN:

YCEL is an ongoing opportunity for Black youth to engage in numerous opportunities and programming throughout the year.

WHO:

Seeking self-driven, partnership-oriented high school students.

CONTACT:

Avondine Hill, Program Coordinator, at Avondine@caahealth.org or (720) 572-5677.

Proud Member
2018-2019

Family Resource Center Association
Connecting Resources, Impacting Lives

