

Job Title: Community Panel Street Team Intern
FLSA Status: Temporary, Exempt
Reports to: Director of Research and Evaluation

The Center for African American Health is a community-based nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the health and well-being of African Americans. The Center works toward health equity for the underserved African American community by offering culturally responsive health education and outreach that empowers community members to overcome the root causes of health problems, maximize their own individual health, and access health and support services.

The Center is building upon existing partnerships and creating new collaborations to begin to address the needs of children, youth, and families. We are looking for detail-oriented and organized team members who excel in fast-paced nonprofit environments, are interested in working to promote community health through inquiry, innovation, and impact, and in joining a well-respected, high-impact organization with a rich history of community service.

Primary Roles & Responsibilities

- Act as an ambassador for The Center
- Engage with community members to promote our community panel (BeHeardMileHigh) at community events. This will include distributing fliers and other promotional materials, while enrolling panel participant via our electronic survey
- Assist with a variety of questions about The Center and Community Panel
- Be knowledgeable about the Center and our BeHeardMileHigh efforts

Requirements/Qualifications

- Reliable, punctual, friendly, and respectful
- Organized, dependable, and responsible; able to work with limited direct supervision
- Ability to follow verbal and written instructions

Compensation

A stipend will be available based on a selected applicant's experience and time commitment. Ideally this individual will dedicate approximately 10 hours a week during summer 2017, which may include weekends and evenings, with flexibility to accommodate other commitments.

How to Apply

Qualified candidates are encouraged to apply by submitting a resume and cover letter highlighting why you are interested in joining the team and why you would be a good fit to Dr. Lynn VanderWielen at the following email address: lynn@caahealth.org. All applications must be submitted electronically – none will be accepted in person. No phone calls please. More information about The Center for African American Health can be found on our website at www.caahealth.org
